

Vistra ITCL is now global

India's largest Corporate Trust Services provider unveils new brand identity

Mumbai, September 12, 2016: Following their acquisition earlier this year by Vistra, IL&FS Trust Company Limited (ITCL), the largest independent Corporate Trust Services provider in India, today launched their new brand identity, as they transition into a global brand as a Vistra company.

The transition to becoming an internationally recognised entity includes the renaming of IL&FS Trust Company Limited (ITCL) to Vistra ITCL (India) Limited and the unveiling of their new logo, which will take the shape of Vistra's arrow symbol, conveying forward momentum and trust.

By becoming part of the Vistra network, Vistra ITCL broadens its reach into an extensive network of 64 offices in 41 jurisdictions around the world, therefore allowing the company and its clients an opportunity to explore and harness international relationships. Moving forward, it will be business as usual for all of Vistra ITCL's employees and clients. The company will continue to maintain their high quality service and client delivery with the complementary addition of the followings:

- Services: Clients can expect a wider range of services thanks to Vistra's global outreach and its varied service offerings
- Promise of Quality: Clients can expect paramount service consistent with the international standards and global best practice, independent advice and effective risk management
- Global Expertise: Access to Vistra's worldwide network will further enhance the connectivity to international markets and services

Ms. Navita Yadav, who will continue on as Managing Director & CEO of Vistra ITCL, commented on the rebranding:

"More than two decades of hard work have allowed us to maintain significant market share in our businesses, thus preserving our position as India's largest independent corporate trustee. Joining the globally strong Vistra came at the perfect time, as we enter the global stage, whilst continuing to offer our clients the valuable and innovative solutions they are accustomed to. It represents the promise of new and exciting beginnings for all of us as we transform into a globally accessible brand with a wider business portfolio, whilst remaining fully committed to our existing relationships and intrinsic values.”

Martin Crawford, CEO of Vistra added:

“Vistra ITCL has been a consistent market leader in India and this merging of our brands is a milestone for all of us. Our combined strengths are guaranteed to deliver more value to all clients, and create a great working atmosphere for all our employees. Vistra ITCL’s wide network of offices in six of the major Indian cities, provide a qualified and professional management team with expertise in debt markets, credit, funds and the corporate services space. This along with Vistra’s global expertise will enable us to thrive as we expand globally whilst we continue to uphold our position as the industry front-runner in India.”
